

Safaris that SIZZLE - Voluntourism!

Every year we highlight our newest safari programs and for 2010-2011, Voluntourism is the forefront of adventure travel and is seeing incredible growth across Africa! The opportunity to expand your horizons beyond a traditional safari experience and work hand-in-hand with local conservationists and communities is unforgettable.

These programs are exclusive to Africa Adventure Co. We know our continued business journey is “Supporting Africa”, exemplified by our sponsoring school students living in communities near parks as they are the next generation conserving their wildlife heritage. Join up for week-long, life-changing experiences. Perfect for college students, teachers, medical professionals and anyone with a love to help out.

8-Day Voluntourism at Damaraland (Namibia)

Spend 7 nights at Desert Rhino Camp which is a joint venture between Wilderness Safaris, the Doro Nawas community and a Namibian empowerment company. Your time may be spent assisting researchers gather data on the desert adapted rhino and elephant population as well as regular game drives. Priced from $2,975.00 per person

Departures: daily

8-Day Research at Mashatu (Botswana)

David Evans, Business Manager to the Rattray Camp portfolio (which includes MalaMala, Sable Camp and Rattray's) has admitted during our decade-long friendship that his true passion lies with Mashatu. This hidden gem in the Tuli Enclave is different from the other MalaMala properties as it is a bit remote and oh so scenic! Offering unsurpassed value – enjoy spending 7 nights at Mashatu Tented Camp where you can personalize your adventure. Besides day and night game drives, accompany researchers with the Tuli Elephant Research Project and the Northern Tuli Predator Project.

Priced from $2,175.00 per person

Departures: daily

8-Day Bushlife Conservancy in Mana Pools (Zimbabwe)

If you have stayed in Vundu Tented Camp or canoed on the Zambezi River, then you've probably met Nick and Des Murray. For over 15 years they have dedicated their lives to preserving the wildlife and integrity of Mana Pools. During a week stay your days will be filled tracking wild dog, recording elephant sightings and donating time to the Bushlife Conservancy and its ongoing work with the park rangers. In addition, guided walks, game drives and canoeing will be offered. Priced from $2,495.00 per person

Departures: daily

8-Day Ndarakwai Voluntourism (Tanzania)

Conservationist Peter Jones's goal is to restore the wildlife populations on his community-based, 11,000-acre Kilimanjaro Conservancy. Actively participate in building classrooms at the local Maasai school, anti-poaching support, weeding out non-indigenous plants, and environmental work with elephants.

Priced from $2,795.00 per person

Departures: daily

8-Day Children in the Ziga Wilderness (Zimbabwe)

This project is making a difference. Two new school buildings have been completed. A borehole is soon to be operational for the vegetable garden that is part of the school kitchen program. Come volunteer your time in the classroom and on the sports fields. Also participate in the Makalolo environmental and conservation efforts in Hwange, from windmills to rhino! Price $2,400.00 per person

Departures: weekly

8-Day Tsavo Community Program (Kenya)

This program is near and dear to our hearts as we sponsor students from the local Moi High School. Here you will work with the local communities in the Tsavo eco-system. Projects include building education and health facilities, micro-enterprise initiatives, anti-poaching efforts and promoting sustainable eco-tourism at Taita.

Priced from $1,850.00 per person

Departures: daily

8-Day Mother Africa (Zimbabwe)

Sharon and Phil Stead may own and run several camps but their true passion lies with Mother Africa, a non-profit organization dedicated to working with the Matobo Hills community and working with the Presidential Herd of Elephants near Hwange. Assist with building new classrooms, plant indigenous tree seedlings or teach the children to read at the orphanage. Participate in data collection on endangered black rhino, nesting sites for the Ground Hornbill chicks, and rock art-cave paintings. You will stay at Amalinda and Ivory Lodge as well as have an overnight village stay.

Price $2,400.00 per person

Departures: Weekly

10-Day Damaraland and Waterberg Conservation (Namibia)

This self-drive adventure across Namibia includes N/a'ankusê Wildlife Sanctuary, Damaraland and the Waterberg Plateau. Whether your interests lie in helping orphaned or injured African wildlife, researching cheetahs and leopards, or making a difference to the medical welfare and education of the under-privileged Bushman community, this is the perfect itinerary for you! Priced from $3,750.00 per person

Departures: daily

4-Weeks GAP Student Outreach (South Africa)

Future Nature, a leader in wilderness learning, runs 4-week Discovery courses tailor-made for people who have time on their hands, and maybe a budding interest in donning khakis and tracking rhino or mingling with the emerging South African culture. Participants' ranging from GAPS after high school or University (18 – 24) as well as older 40 – 50ish.

Priced from $3,250.00 per person - Departures: daily

