Trip Reports:

We have just returned from our third safari trip to Africa, our second arranged by Africa Adventure Company. Everything went like clockwork, as it did last time. This trip we went to Botswana, to Vumbura Plains and Mombo Camp, and returned to Linkwasha Camp in Zimbabwe, stopping for one night at Elephant Camp in Victoria Falls on the way. We love to share our experiences with friends and others who are interested in African wildlife and the wonderful people involved in conservation. We had great times at all these places, and saw amazing numbers of all the animals (except the elusive rhino, which we are hoping to see on our next trip). Our accommodations were all different from each other, all very comfortable, all with gorgeous views and kind, skillful staff. We can't say enough about Africa Adventure Company: Every detail was taken care of, including a personalized pre-trip information spiral-bound book that was invaluable to us. We are planning a return trip with them.

We then did a road transfer to Sandibe. We had a private guide (Max) and a tracker (Elvis) and they knew we had unsuccessfully looked for leopards for a couple of days...So for the next 4 drives we were leopard-centric....first afternoon we found one lounging high up in a tree with golden light bathing her face. The next morning we tracked two different cats and ironically it was in the transitional area between Chitabe and Sandibe....

We loved Sandibe...everything about it...they have all new management at the camp who have been there for a very short time. Andrew, the manager, Misty the asst. manager and Murray the chef have been there as little as 2 weeks. We also had a butler, a wee bit unexpected but Moses was wonderful and a fabulous person. Despite having new front office staff, everything was fabulous...the rooms, the food (make your own pizza (gluten free too!!) the special touches for Karen and my birthdays.
