Trip reports:

Little Kulala: You guys were very smart to start with the trip with Namibia. (I think I had originally wanted it to be at the end.) It was amazing - so vast and breathtaking there, but if we had ended with it, I suspect (maybe?) that we would have been disappointed with the lack of animal life. Instead, we took a million pics of every springbok we saw - unaware that we'd see so much animal life that we wouldn't know what to do with ourselves. Our guide was Chris at Little Kulala - he was phenomenal. We loved our stay at Little Kulala (sleeping out under the stars was incredible). We also did the hot air balloon ride - another stunning keeper. The company was fantastic.

Sossusvlei- our guide Chris met us and took us to Little Kuala...Very beautiful and great accommodations. They were prepared and offered us lunch and then we met up with our guide around 4:30/5 for first sundowner drive(which we had every evening while in Namibia). Chris was our guide for our 3 days and great. Little Kuala met its description and was fabulous. Outdoor shower, AC, hairdryer, plugs in room, refridge , coffee/tea maker, private plunge pool with very large private patio all overlooking the water hole. Loved the room and the lodge layout...Had a wonderful bush dinner with friends we met on sundowner . We even had the staff singing and we all danced around after dinner. Also very good choice of food at this dinner and very good South African wines at all camps.
