Trip Report:

Tanda Tula is a wonderful camp - accommodations were amazing, and all of what goes into a great stay. The staff and food are wonderful. They invited us for a morning drive on our last day which wasn't on our schedule but we had time for given our flight schedule. That was the day we saw a final round of great sites.

So, thank you for a great trip. I found it so easy making the plans. I think we had 1 phone call and perhaps 2 email rounds. I'll be back again next time I plan a trip to Africa. My trip 6 years ago and this one have been the best 2 vacations I ever gone on!!

Cheers,
Janet Evans

I had again, the best safari ever, but I say this on every single one that you have put together for me. The camps were perfect, the guides were on their toes, knowledgeable, polite, caring, and intuitive. Mosaic has added a spa---ooooohhh!

Alison, thanks again for everything. We had a fabulous time. We actually met Brees, the owner at Mosaic, when we were there. He seems like a lovely man and mentioned that his wife has been to visit you a few times. I think you were right with your initial idea though - we should have stayed there 3 nights. The same in Knysna. Oh well, next time I won't second guess you haha!! All the staff at both Mosaic and Mashatu were just so incredibly friendly, caring and helpful. They really make those places wonderful. And the food!! Oh my!!
