

We really enjoyed our first trip to Africa & felt that the itinerary was perfect for what we wanted to see. Each location was better than the one before it. Kyle, you must have planned it that way. I think that we saw six Mara River crossings!

We found that our favorite experience was at Naboisho Conservancy. We enjoyed our "tent", central living & dining areas, the Maasai guiding, the communal meals (lunches were a highlight), & the genuine warmth of the staff especially Clea & Moses. The quantity of animal sightings was less than the other locations so we took advantage of their Night Game Drive & their Walking Tour with Roelof. Both were highlights of the trip. We really appreciated Roelof's extensive knowledge.

After the first eight days we wondered what could possibly be left to see. We were so wrong. Each day was better than the last one. This trip just jumped the queue to our #1 favorite of all time beating out Antarctica & Patagonia.

Dear AAC:

Send all your clients to Namiri Plains. Mother lion on a kopje nursing 4 tiny cubs. 6 male lions on a bluff next to camp overlooking a herd of buffalo which they plunder whenever hungry. We saw 19 cheetah in 2 days. Mostly mothers with cubs.

Olakira/Serengeti- We loved the staff at Olakira. They were so friendly and the food was spectacular. Chocolate truffles to die for!! They barbequed in the pouring rain and it was wonderful. The best appetizers too. We met the most interesting people at Olakira, and we really enjoyed the communal aspect to the camp. Daniel the bartender was most hospitable, and they did not skimp on the wine! If we had stayed in lodges like Exploreans the whole time, we would have missed this part of the trip. Our guide, Reuben, was wonderful. He wanted so badly for us to see the Wildebeest crossing and to find a rhino (alas, that was the only thing we did not see). We were incredibly fortunate to see 2 huge crossings and it was truly a sight.

Overall, we were so pleased to see different environments and experience different camps on our safari

Thank you again for all your planning, hand holding and expertise. This is truly the trip of a lifetime and one we will never forget. I will certainly recommend Africa Adventure Company to anyone who is interested in traveling to Africa.

All My Best,

Dana Riccard
